

THE GOLF ACADEMY

Byron Nel

Born in 1989, and grew up in Pinetown, Durban. Byron went to school at Sutherland High and Matriculated in 2006. He studied a B-Tech Degree in Sport Officiating and Coaching as well as completed his PGA Club Professional Diploma at Tshwane University of Technology in 2010.

Byron has participated in various PGA pro-am's and events over the years and continues to work on his own game to ensure that the techniques and principles he uses with his students both on and off the course are of the latest and best quality.

Byron worked at Mt Edgecombe Country Club under PGA Master Professional Phil Simmons from 2010 to 2012. Then moved to Umhlali Country Club until 2014. Byron decided to move back to Pretoria and ran the Junior Golf Academy at Blue Valley Country Club until 2016. Byron has been working alongside John Dickson at The Els Club, Copperleaf since February 2017 and running all the junior and introductory golf programs.

Byron works part-time for the PGA of SA, running and managing the Gauteng North Region as the MRM (Member Relationship Manager) from 2015 to current. Byron has Won the PGA Gauteng North Region Grow Golf Award 2018.
